

Marshall Steam Museum

at Auburn Heights Preserve

Useful Books for Fourth and Fifth Grade

Grade Level: For grades 4-5; adaptable for other ages depending on reading abilities

Books are a great way to introduce students to the themes that they are going to explore at the museum and to add to their vocabulary. If you use any of these books, let us know what you think at education@auburnheights.org.

Non-Fiction Titles	Author	Lexile
Henry Ford: Young Man With Ideas	Hazel Aird	650L
Automobiles and How They Work	Jennifer Pior	700L
The Science of Car Racing	Karen Latchana Kenney	780L
Who Was Thomas Edison	Margaret Frith	790L
Locomotive	Brian Floca	840L
Electrical Wizard: How Nikola Tesla Lit Up the World	Elizabeth Rusch	840L
Transportation: From Walking to High Speed Rail	Elizabeth Raum	910L
Girls Think of Everything: Stories of Ingenious Inventions by Women	Catherine Thimmesh	960L
Built To Last	George Sullivan	950L
The Automobile (Inventions That Shaped the World)	Robyn Conley	1120L
Bridges and Tunnels: Investigate Feats of Engineering with 25 Projects	Donna Latham	IG870L
Car Science: An Under-the-Hood Behind-the Dash	Richard Hammond	IG1080L
Look at How Cars Work	Richard Cheel	NC1150L
Global Warming Alert!
Fiction Titles
The Railway Children	Mary Sebag-Montefiore	550L
On the Blue Comet	Rosemary Wells	730L
Everything I Know about Cars	Tom Lichtenheld	1060L