DESCRIPTION: The Auburn Heights Invitational returns for its 12th year with an extraordinary line-up of historic automobiles from the classic era through 1969. This year's display will complement the museum's special exhibition that explores the crossroads of fashion and automobiles during the first half of the 20th century—Stylized: The Road to Elegance—with a spotlight on cars representing the best in each decade's automotive advances from 1900 to 1950.

As always, proceeds benefit the Joseph Boxler Education Fund and the Marshall Steam Museum, operated by the Friends of Auburn Heights, a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization. Funds raised provide invaluable support for our growing roster of educational programs.
